SilentArena Goes to the Moon

SilentArena visit London's Southbank Centre to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the moon landings.

On 17th July 2009 London Southbank Centre, in conjunction with SilentArena, will host a space themed extravaganza which will include a rooftop Silent Disco. Tickets cost £20 and are available from www.southbankcentre.co.uk with doors open at 7pm.

To celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Moon Landings London's Southbank Centre will play host to an extraterrestrial themed party on the roof of the Queen Elizabeth Hall. Overlooking the River Thames the audience will groove the night away in silence as SilentArena's Silent Disco brand comes to town. With close to 500 silent ravers expected you can be sure it won't remain "silent" for long, and with the DJing talents of Nick Brown, Jonny Trunk and Kirsten Reynolds to name but a few the evening is bound to be out of this world. So commemorate those small steps for man with one giant leap into the surreal world of the Silent Disco.
